

! INTERNATIONAL BREEDER ALERT!

UPDATE OCTOBER 2017

In September 2016, UK animal hoarder, AMANDA ADAMS, was successfully prosecuted by the RSPCA for offences under the Animal Welfare Act.

She was BANNED FOR A TOTAL OF 10 YEARS from keeping animals of any kind.

This was her second conviction, having been prosecuted and banned in 2015, which she ignored.

In December 2016, ADAMS AGAIN IGNORED THE BAN and using another false name, purchased two Irish Wolfhound puppies and took them to Ireland, where we have been informed she is now living.

SHE REMAINS A THREAT TO THE BREED

We understand she is still trying to buy large and giant breed puppies worldwide using false names and details and is active on Facebook under false profiles.

BREEDERS OF ANY LARGE OR GIANT DOGS SHOULD BE WARY OF ENQUIRIES FROM ANY PERSON THEY DO NOT KNOW.

If you receive puppy enquiries from someone you do not know personally, especially from Ireland, PLEASE contact any of the breed organisations below and arrangements can be made to home check buyers and confirm identities.
